NEWS & NOTES

News & Notes is a weekly (that's the goal) publication that has been ongoing since August. It is available on the CTU website and through Member Mobilization emails. This is an update of the work that is being done on behalf of all of our teachers, paraprofessionals, psychologists, nurses, speech language pathologists, therapists, sign language interpreters, and social workers.

3 WEEK PAY GAP

There will be a 3 week gap in pay again this summer. Last pay check for 2015-16 school year is on July 29. Next pay day (first pay of the new school year) would be August 12. We do not come back to work until Wednesday, August 10. That is too late to process payroll and get the money from the district to the banks before Friday. So that is why there is a 3 week gap. Then we will get paid the following week (2 pay checks in a row) so that we are back on the same schedule as everyone else.

FINAL EFFECTIVENESS RATING

The district did receive an extension from the state until June 30. As of Wednesday, June 15 the district had about 300 teachers left to input into the eTPES system. Most of those teachers were at the high school level. ACT data was received by the district on Tuesday. They are attempting to get all teachers impacted by that data completed by Friday, June 17.

There is no penalty for not reviewing eTPES. The review is to verify that the information that was manually entered to the ODE is correct. It is important, but there is no consequence to the teacher or related service provider that does not verify. I do think that it is an important step to verify that the information that ODE has that will make up your Final Effectiveness Rating is accurate. Emails are going out as the data is submitted to ODE, so that is why some members have received it and some members have not.

RESIGNATIONS DUE JULY 10

By state law, all certificated personnel that plan to resign from a school district MUST do so by July 10. If a teacher, related service provider, principal, etc. resigns after July 10 can have their Ohio license revoked for up to 2 years. A school district would have to go to the ODE for the license to be revoked. Over the last several years, the CMSD has not sought to have a license revoked if a certified staff member resigned after July 10. They very well may do it this year. If the district does seek to have license(s) revoked, they must pursue all people that resign after July 10 – they are not permitted to do it on a case by case basis. If they go after the license of one principal, one teacher, one related service provider, etc. then they must go to ODE for everyone. Anyone that plans to resign and work in Ohio should make sure that they do resign by July 10.

HOW TO RESIGN OR RETIRE

Click here CMSD's website or go to CMSD then click > Departments > Human Resources > Leaving the District. The date that you submit your resignation or retirement form over the summer does not impact your health care. As long as you completed your 2015-16 contract, you will receive health care through August 31st.

I CAN CHARTERS

Teachers and support staff at the 3 recently unionized I Can charter schools in Cleveland have overwhelmingly ratified their first collective bargaining agreement. They are the first charter school educators in Cleveland to have a collectively bargained contract. These teachers and support staff are members of the Cleveland Alliance of Charter Teachers and Staff (Cleveland ACTS), an affiliate of the Ohio Federation of Teachers. Abi Haren, a second-grade assistant teacher at University of Cleveland Preparatory School, said, "We ratified a strong contract that gives my co-workers and me a voice in making I Can Schools better for our students and for educators. This agreement will allow me the freedom and autonomy to speak up for the needs of my students without fearing for my job security. We look forward to building a partnership with the I Can administration to strengthen our schools. This has been a long road to win a real voice in our school, and it would not have happened without the support of Cleveland Teachers Union President David Quolke and our fellow educators in the CTU. Their support, along with I Can families and community members, sent a clear message that we are professional educators who deserve respect for our commitment to Cleveland students."

OHIO MATH ASSESSMENTS

This article comes from Gongwer News. This is a news organization that follows the actions, votes, debates, and politics of the Ohio Legislature. Is ODE Board President Gunlock inferring that kids do better on tests when teachers know better how to teach to the test? From Gongwer: Early results showing high schoolers didn't do as well as expected on two state math tests this spring are prompting the State Board of Education to consider lowering the bar students must meet to graduate. Board members next week will take up a proposal lowering the scores students must achieve on those end-of-course exams to earn points toward graduation, President Tom Gunlock said. Their vote will modify scores that were set in January based off assumptions on how students would perform on the tests. "We guessed, so to speak, as to what the scores were going to be and we're pretty close on everything else. Geometry and Math II we didn't hit very well, though," he said in an interview. Earlier this year, the Department of Education told the board that it expected 59% of students to score proficient or above on state Geometry tests and 56% of students would be proficient or above in Math II at the selected cut scores. Preliminary results from test maker AIR show the proficiency rates were much lower, however. Just 24% of students were at least proficient in Geometry and 21% scored proficient or above in Math II. Lowering the score students must receive to reach proficiency on those end-of-course exams could respectively increase those totals to 52% and 35%, according to ODE. Mr. Gunlock said he's hopeful the board will be supportive of lowering the cut scores to address the mathematics "outliers," with the expectation that students will rise to the challenge to produce better results on future tests. "We've seen some test questions and we just need to adapt and make sure that the teachers are teaching the stuff that's important or doing a better job of it and everybody will adapt and overcome just like they did when the OGT came out," he said.

A huge thank you to all of the CTU members who attended our Rally on May 27 at the CMSD Administration Building. Our message was loud and clear. Our voices united to let the CMSD and the community know that CTU members demand:
